

Great Bay Discovery Center Education Internship 2019

Gain valuable teaching experience while having fun!

Who?

Must be a junior or senior in an undergraduate or graduate program pursuing a natural resources/ environmental or education degree.

What?

Develop and/or lead a variety of education programs about the Great Bay Estuary.

When?

A minimum of 130 hours, April-August. A more detailed schedule can be found online.

Please send a resume and cover letter by March 1st, 2019 to Melissa Brogle, Volunteer Coordinator at melissa.brogle@wildlife.nh.gov. For more details please visit www.greatbay.org/programs/education

GREAT BAY NATIONAL ESTUARINE
RESEARCH
RESERVE

